The Desert Sun

Miers Couple to Appear in Court Again Monday

Robert Kenneth Miers and Michael Elizabeth Miers, accused slayers of Donald Graham, building inspector for the city, will face Judge Hilton McCabe in Indio superior court next Monday at 1:30 p.m., for arraignment, continued from September 7.

They did not enter a plea at that time and the cases were continued until Monday to give the defendants a chance to confer with attorneys.

COUNTY PUBLIC DEFENDER Maurice Sherrill is scheduled to return from vacation by Monday to appear on behalf of the Miers at their arraignment. Attorney Merrill Brown, who was named by Judge McCabe to determine whether the finances of the Miers or their relatives would permit the hiring of a private attorney, has contacted all parties as directed by the court in Sherrill's absence, and will submit his report to the court on or before Monday.

Palm Springs Police Chief August G. Kettmann said this week that the suspects were given lie detector tests while in custody in Palm Springs and though it was hoped that it would "break down" the suspects, it didn't.

The couple currently is being held in Riverside county jail, awaiting their trial in Indio superior court.

MEANWHILE, Sgt. Robert White, who had assumed the handling of the case for the local department, has been busy tabulating and numbering all the evidence of the case. They include more than 70 pieces—fingerprints, blood samples, clothing stolen from the home, clothing belonging to the Miers, and many other items.

Junior Chamber to Meet this Evening

Palm Springs Junior Chamber of Commerce will meet at 8:30 p.m. today in World Wars Memorial Hall with an interesting program in charge of Don Bottorf, planned.

Plans for several social events this season and for many civic undertakings will be discussed.

Benefit Dance for Victims of Flood Slated Saturday

Desert Recreation Center at Indian Avenue and Radio Road will be full to capacity next Saturday night when Villagers and visitors rally there in a benefit dance and entertainment for people of the flood-stricken northeastern states.

The event was originated by Palm Springs Elks Lodge, 1905, and is sponsored by them, assisted by most of the city's other civic organizations.

Rudy Salazar is chairman of the event for the Elks.

Prospective Little Merchants Enjoy Gay Time at Sun Party

It was a hilarious affair — wasn't it, fellas?

There were refreshments, motion pictures and fun mixed up with some mighty big stuff about becoming a "little" merchant as a Desert Sun carrier, complete with a business of your own.

Then, of course, the big surprise came when Chief of Police August Kettmann told you guys present all about the special card he planned to sign for each of the new Desert Sun carriers.

THIS CARD, if you remember, will have written on it your age, height, color of your eyes, and hair, a thumb print and will inform those who read it that the owner is an upright citizen of this community. That he is just as important, business wise, as any merchant in town. And most of all that he can be trusted to carry out all of his promises.

AND THIS CARD IS ONLY TO BE ISSUED FOR DESERT SUN CARRIERS EXCLUSIVELY. NO ONE ELSE CAN GET ONE! All of you had pictures taken, two of which are in this edition of The Desert Sun. Look at the picture now, you may find your face looking right at you from the columns of this newspaper.

NOW YOU ALL REMEMBER the beautiful prizes that were won, too. Well, there is news for those who plan to become Desert Sun carriers; more par-

Desert Sun Getting Set for Start of Operation as Daily

The Desert Sun is—All Set—On its Mark and ready to Go!

But it will not GO until the order to let the metropolitan press roll on the afternoon of October 4, when a dream of more than two years becomes a solid reality and this newspaper joins the illustrious family of afternoon daily newspapers throughout the nation.

All Summer long preparations for this debut into the daily field occupied the total attention of owners, publisher and staff.

ALL SUMMER LONG and even two or three months before that, interviews were conducted with prospective additional employees, all specialists, to be formed into a team for the publication of a daily newspaper.

Workmen, pressmen, writers, features, comic strips, arrangements for wire press services, photographers and clerical help were interviewed for the best selection in human effort. And all of this was necessary because:

The daily Desert Sun of Palm Springs has to be different than any other daily newspaper in a community of this size.

It has to be different because this community is as unlike the average small city as night time is from day time.

ABSOLUTELY NOTHING formed a financial barrier in purchasing the finest equipment and the best human talent necessary in producing a daily newspaper which will publish within its columns:

Information of interest, news stories of international importance, regional stories of the same caliber and most importantly of all

ALL THE LOCAL NEWS OF IMPORTANCE — Coupled with

MEANEST THIEF

ROBS BRAILLE BOX

Meanest thief story—repeat performance.

Second theft of coins from the Braille Institution container at Farmers' Market, 444 North Palm Canyon drive, came to the attention of police Saturday.

A similar theft reported in 1954 was labeled the "meanest thief," as it involved stealing from charity.

The thieves broke the glass in the outside container, and then scooped the coins out, investigating officers said.

The area is presently in the Cabazon school district, but a petition has been taken out and presented to supervisors, asking for annexation to the Palm Springs district. The issue involves 31 children.

Dr. Wallace R. Muelder, superintendent of schools, told trustees that the annexation of the area would cost this district about $4,500 a year.

Members of the board told of their reluctance to admit any children from that area until after the meeting of the supervisors at which a decision will be made on the annexation, despite the urging of Whitewater parents of the six children that trustees take immediate action.

Helen Staley said it was her opinion that perhaps "affirmative action by this board on the annexation question."

The board instructed the administration to see that the Palm Springs school board was present at the meeting of supervisors, "to protect the neutral position of this district."

Council Discusses Plans for Improvement Bonds

Invitations Go Out for State Hotel Session

1200 Expected in City for Convention Slated in November

Invitations to attend the 44th annual convention here of the California State Hotel Association went into the mails today to operators of resorts and hotels in the 11 western states.

Edmund A. Rieder, general manager of the Sheraton-Palace, San Francisco, estimated that more than 1200 will be in Palm Springs November 6 to 9 for the convention sessions.

At the same time, Harold J. Smith, Carrillo Hotel, Santa Barbara, convention chairman, announced that vice chairman of the convention will be Dewey W. Metzendorf of Hotel The Oasis and Frank Bogert of El Mirador.

HEADQUARTERS for the convention will be at Hotel The Oasis and convention sessions will be at the Plaza theater.

William C. Robinson, managing director of the association, announced that registration for the convention will begin at 3 p.m. Sunday, November 6, and that those who arrive that day will be guests at a "get acquainted" cocktail party at the Oasis from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

First business sessions will open at 9:30 a.m. November 7, with a business men's luncheon at noon in the Oasis. A ladies' luncheon and fashion show will be held at the same time at the Palm Springs Tennis club. A western steak barbecue will be held in the evening at the Biltmore.

BUSINESS SESSIONS on November 8 will be followed in the evening with the association's annual cocktail party at El Mirador, followed at 8 o'clock with the annual banquet and dance.

Officers will be elected at the November 9 business session.

Robinson said Palm Springs will gain tremendous publicity as a resort area because of the convention.

He said that being sent out with the invitations are folders telling the Palm Springs story, which he asked the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce to supply.

Further, he said, business sessions should attract the interest of newspapers and wire services.

School Figures Up 252 in Week

Enrollment in Palm Springs schools increased by 252 during the first week, to a total of 1934, Dr. Wallace Muelder, schools superintendent, reported Wednesday.

Opening day attendance at all schools last Wednesday was 1682.

All school showed increases, with the following comparisons: (opening day first):

Cathedral City 222 231

Desert Hot Springs 98 104

Katherine Finchy 281 346

Frances Stevens 177 192

Thousand Palms 9 13

Nellie Coffman 266 331

Arrest of Juveniles Clears Four Burglaries in Village

Four burglaries within the city limits have been cleared by the arrest of the three juvenile escapees from an Orange county detention home, Capt. Orest Johnson reported this week.

Most of the loot from the homes has also been recovered. right side on a sand dune.

Cook and his son were taken to the Indio Hospital, where he was treated for a shattered elbow and broken leg, the baby had a broken bone in the left shoulder.

The family was preparing to move into the area.

Major burglary was that at the home of Mrs. Elsinore Macchris Gilliland, where a quantity of liquor, 135 high fidelity records and other items were taken. Three cases of liquor were recovered, as well as the records, from where the boys had cached them in a secluded canyon in the Lake Arrowhead-Big Bear area.

A STATION WAGON also taken from the Gilliland residence was recovered earlier.

The youths were taken into custody by Santa Barbara authorities. One was apprehended during an attempted burglary, and the other two were spotted in a stolen car 40 miles away, the same day.

Other burglaries admitted by the boys were at the Joe Bamberger residence, 950 Cahulla road, where blankets and a radio were taken; Perry Croak guest cottage and Raymond Cree residence both at 511 Via Colusa, where clothing and food were taken.

THE YOUTHS ESCAPED from custody of Orange county authorities on August 27, and came here immediately. All burglaries were committed that evening, and the youths stayed at the Gilliland home until Sunday. They went from Palm Springs to Lake Arrowhead where they broke into two cabins and also stole two automobiles, one a 1955 model with only 24 miles registered on the car. During the interim time between car thefts and before they left for Santa Barbara, they camped five days in the canyon where the loot was recovered.

The boys had drunk about 12 bottles of wine and champagne, and had used for food imported caviar, sardines and tamales, Capt. Johnson said.

Orange county will have jurisdiction in the case, with the burglaries here to be added to the charges facing the youths.

Authorize Bids for School Car

Board of Education last week authorized advertisement of bids for purchase of a new automobile for the district.

The car will be a four-door sedan with the name of the school district on the doors.

The board is seeking either a late 1955 model or a new 1956 model.

New Registration Law on Trailers is Now in Effect

Owners and operators of house trailers in California are affected by a new and stronger law enacted by the 1955 Legislature, effective last Wednesday.

Paul Mason, state director of motor vehicles, in Sacramento advised all trailer coach owners to check the status of their trailer registrations within the next 30 days. If the registration and license fees are due, they automatically become delinquent September 7 under terms of the new law, and will become subject to penalties on Friday, October 7.

"The trailer coach registration requirements were strengthened and made more inclusive by the new law," Mason said. "The major effect of the legislation is to provide that any trailer coach within this state shall be subject to annual registration and licensing whether it is operated or not."

"Many trailer coach users who have been living in the vehicles as house trailers, or who have been moving them only occasionally, have not been much concerned about the state's registration requirements. Under the new law, they will be required to apply immediately for registration."

The motor vehicles director said the state fees include the flat $8.00 annual registration fee required for all motor vehicles, and a license fee of 2 per cent of the valuation of the vehicle determined by the Department of Motor Vehicles as specified by law. Penalties imposed 30 days after the fees are delinquent amount to 100 per cent of the registration fee and 50 per cent of the license fee. He advised all owners of trailer coaches which are not currently registered and displaying valid license plates and registration cards, to consult local Department of Motor Vehicles representatives to determine their status.

Picnic Grounds at Fern Valley Planned

night clubs, Kettmann said. "An employer is entitled to know something of the background of his employees," the police chief added.

Two types of identification cards are issued upon registration, permanent (good for five years), and temporary (good for one year). New employees are those who were not employed within the city for at least seven months of the three years preceding the effective date of the ordinance, February 22, 1954.

THE ORDINANCE is similar to those in effect in Nevada, Florida and several other states for many years.

Kettmann asked the cooperation of all employers in requiring employees to have a registration card. One way to accomplish this is to have employees show their cards prior to presentation of weekly pay checks, he said.

A strict enforcement policy will be conducted by the police department in regard to the ordinance, Kettmann said, with spot checks of all affected places to be made throughout the Fall and Winter seasons.

Sign Ordinance Case Decision Expected Soon

Judge Eugene Theriault is expected to reach a decision either the latter part of this week or the first of next week in the City of Palm Springs suit against James and Mary Carlin, charging them with violation of the city sign ordinance.

Judge Theriault in justice court last Wednesday heard oral arguments in the case, and granted each attorney, Jerry Bunker representing the city, and Enos Reid, representing the Carlins, additional time in which to file written memoranda.

This extra material is expected to be submitted by today.

The City seeks to force the Carlins to remove their $4.50 sign at their El Tram Hotel, 2525 North Palm Canyon drive. The Carlins, through their attorney, say that the sign ordinance is unconstitutional.

Unedited

By BILL RASHALL

The backwash of time and events have lapped at the sands of the desert hereabouts to bring into review again the story about one John Davis who had a short lived tenure as Chief of Police of Palm Springs.

Remember how Russell Rink, then city manager of Palm Springs, resigned because of his appointment of Davis as our chief of police? Inevitably the resignation of Chief Davis was demanded and received but he threw up a cloud of camouflage alibi without any foundations in fact, upon which to ride out of town.

EX-CHIEF OF POLICE DAVIS blasted the town. He ripped and snorted. Called out-of-town newspapers, who find Palm Springs a tasty morsel about which to publish stories. He called in reporters for the Riverside papers who made glaring lead stories about his pronouncements of doom for this community.

That "wrestling with the devil" had so completely worn him out during his short tenure in office here, there was no other avenue left for him but to resign. His plan, Davis had said, was to purge this town of gamblers and other vices but there stood in his way towering individuals and city officials who would not allow that to be done. He carefully refrained from speaking of his own ineptitude, lack of leadership, diplomacy and forthrightness. Everybody was out of step in Palm Springs but Chief Davis. Blow a trumpet and the walls will collapse upon the city, he cried.

HE BLEW THE HORN. Long and hard did he blow. He alienated the esteem of those very few friends he had in Palm Springs and somehow the town struggled on flourishing. It is continuing to flourish and prosper and the evil that was so rampant in Palm Springs is as ephemeral as the wisps of smoke curling from a scented cigarette.

Why should I waste this bit of precious column space to even bring Davis' memory back to mind? Well, I'll tell you. Have you ever heard of the city of Seaside, California? Mayor Jack Oldemeyer of that newly incorporated community came to Palm Springs to interview our then chief of police following an application he had filed for the same position with that city. The two became fast friends if memory serves me well. Davis became the Chief of Police of Seaside.

TODAY HE AND the mayor are reportedly throwing oral brickbats at each other. Davis, feeling the ground there slipping beneath his feet, is screaming to high heaven that hoodlums, gangsters and gamblers are taking the town over. He has called, it is said, attention to what he claims to be an attempt of these lawless men to take over the reins of the city of Seaside. Among them, of course, is (and you have guessed that already) the very man who hired him, Mayor Oldemeyer. Poor Seaside, Ah, me!

Somehow the air in town is so much fresher these days.

AND NOW BACK to the more wholesome things in life. Doctor Frank Purcell is back practicing dentistry after an absence from that profession that extended over several months. And Tom Kieley, who over a period of years following World War II, earned for himself the respect of a wide segment of this city's population, is now associated with Samson-Curtis, Inc., insurance agency. A new field for Tom but in which he will no doubt succeed. He and I have been throwing oral barbs at each other for many years—sometimes in fun and sometimes in anger. That is the gamut of true friendship.

Sweet trumpet playing Joe Garcia son of Victoria Salazar, wife of Rudy Salazar, called his parents from Japan where he is spending his furlough from Korea. He informed his mother and dad that he will be a coming home soon. Said he had a novel experience in Japan—playing as a guest in an all-girl band.

SAID BOB HIGGINS, one of our youngest contractors, "I predict that this building boom in Palm Springs will continue for the next seven years."

And Bob (Casual-Aire) Morris predicts that Palm Springs' merchants will enjoy the greatest season ever.

Austin Green, Channel 2, TV announcer proclaimed during the heat wave in Los Angeles when the thermometer there reached the 100 mark that "Palm Springs was enjoying a delightfully cool 110 degrees" and was the place to go to get away from the heat.

Ray Ryan in town for a few fleeting hours after warm handshakes all around moved into a huddle with Frank Bogert, Jack Gold and Attorney Roy Colegate.

Then like a flash he was off again and to return again like most everyone does who has had a taste of living here on the desert. Ray Ryan is the kind of a fellow who is more than welcome here.

$53,105 Building in Village Area

Construction valued at $53,105 was started last week in the unincorporated area around Palm Springs. Permits were issued by the County Building department.

Elizabeth Grewe Taken by Death

Elizabeth G. Grewe, of 1022 Granvia Valmonte, succumbed at St. Vincent's hospital in Los Angeles Monday according to word to friends here.

She had been a Winter resident of Palm Springs for the past 36 years. Three years ago she and her husband, Edwin E. Grewe, who survives her, bought the Granvia Valmonte home.

Other survivors were two sisters who made their home with her here, Elsie Mildner and Hannah (Billy) Mildner.

Rosh Hashonah Worship to Mark Jewish New Year

Tomorrow night marks the beginning of the year 5716 according to the traditional Jewish calendar. In Palm Springs, the New Year (Rosh Hashonah) will be inaugurated with special worship services conducted by Temple Isaiah at the Jewish Community Center, 332 West Alejo road. Services are scheduled for 8 p.m.

Funeral services will be held from Haden-Flannigan funeral home in Inglewood today at 1 p.m. The family requests no flowers be sent but that contributions be made to the American Cancer Society instead.

Services will be held at 8:15 and for Saturday and Sunday mornings at 10. Special children's services will be conducted in the Sanctuary on Saturday at 3 p.m.

Rabbi Leon W. Rosenberg will officiate and will preach at each of the services. The liturgy will be conducted by Cantor Don Decker who will be assisted by the Temple choir composed of Evelyn Spikre, Mary Raphael, Ezma Panlaqui, Mary Hoover, Jack Hillery, Robert Hoover and John Cronholm under the direction of Choirmaster Harry Tomlinson. Christine Tomlinson will be at the Temple organ.

Youth Center to be Opened Today

Palm Springs Youth Center, North Belardo road, is scheduled to re-open today following a two-week period during which the recreation spot was being readied for the new season.

Carl Plate, and his wife, Inez, who were appointed directors of the Center, will be in charge.

Open house for all boys and girls between the ages of 13 and 19 will be held at the Youth Center this afternoon from 3:30 to 9 p.m. Free punch will be served, and suggestions taken on proposed activities.

Stork Wins Second Race with Auto Within Month

For the second time in a month, Old Doc Stork outspeeded an automobile on a local highway.

This time it happened on highway 111 to Mrs. Stanley Ring of Palm Desert.

About 1 a.m. Friday she told her husband that the time had come and the two started toward Desert Hospital in the family car.

Just before turning into Palm Canyon drive, the baby announced her arrival. The trip was completed to Desert Hospital where attendants completed the job.

The little girl is the third child of the Ring family but the first girl. She has two brothers, one 11 and one eight.

She weighed seven and one half pounds at birth and has been named Nancy.

Good things always take time! That's why new Carnation Pineapple Ice Cream just didn't happen overnight. Carnation began planning it months ago with a world-famous pineapple grower in Hawaii. You know how fussy Carnation is about everything. The pineapple for Carnation Pineapple Ice Cream must be just so. It must be the choicest and juiciest of the whole crop. It must ripen at just the right time. It must be cut into just the right size little pieces, for best flavor and easiest eating. And it must be shipped from Hawaii to our local Carnation Ice Cream plant at just the right moment.

The right moment has now arrived—and Carnation Pineapple Ice Cream is here today!

Mahalo very much!

Mahalo means thank you in Hawaii—and "thank you" is what folks always say when you serve that fabulous Treat-of-the-Month—Pineapple Ice Cream, made as only Carnation can make it!

HUSBAND HINT

When whitewall tires get dingy looking, try those little kitchen scouring pads that have soap right in them.

Party Hint

When you serve Ice Cream to your guests, pre-chill the plates first. Then it'll stay nice and firm longer—even for those who dawdle.

*Imagine anyone dawdling over delicious Carnation Pineapple Ice Cream!

Lucky at Cards,
Lucky at Dinner!

Simple dinners are such a blessing! Especially when my husband and I entertain another couple for bridge. First I feed the children, then I serve this easy-to-make

"BRIDGE NIGHT" TUNA CASSEROLE

(makes 4-6 servings)
1-6 oz. package egg noodles
1 can (10 1/2 oz.) cream of mushroom soup
1/2 cup Fresh Homogenized Milk
1 cup (6-7 oz. can) tuna
1 cup cooked peas
1/2 cup grated American cheese
1/4 cup toasted bread crumbs
1 tablespoon butter
paprika

Cook noodles according to package directions; drain. Mix soup and milk. Put layers of noodles, tuna and peas in buttered 1 1/2 quart casserole. Pour soup over casserole. Top with cheese, crumbs and butter. Bake for about 30 minutes in moderate oven (350° F.).

With hot rolls and a green salad, it's really a grand dinner (if I do say so myself)! And, of course, for dessert this month, I'll be serving lots of Carnation Pineapple Ice Cream. It only comes once a year, and when it does, I want people to enjoy it!

MAYFAIR'S ANNUAL BOATLOAD SALE!

There Are Dozens of Wonderful Ways to Serve Shrimp... May We Suggest a Few?

Here's one of the great Mayfair sales that our customers look forward to. It's your big opportunity to load up on finest quality shrimp at real bargain prices. Fill your freezer for use whenever you need it. Medium size.

BUTTERFLY SHRIMP

Peel 1 pound of shrimp, except for tail. Remove vein, slash halfway through each. Combine 1 beaten egg, 1/3 cup milk and 3 tbsp. melted shortening. 1/2 cup flour, 1/2 tsp. salt and 2 tsp. sugar. Beat until smooth. Dip shrimp in batter, drain and fry in deep fat at 365 F. for 2 to 3 min.

CURRIED SHRIMP

1/2 cup margarine 3 tsp. curry powder
1/4 cup onion flakes 1 cup chicken stock
1/4 cup flour 2 cups milk
1 tsp. salt 1 tsp. lemon juice
4 cups cooked shrimp

Saute onion flakes. Stir in flour, seasonings, stock, cook until thick, stir constantly. Add milk, lemon juice, shrimp. Heat well.

SHRIMP CREOLE

Peel 1 pound of raw shrimp, wash, remove vein. Cook 1 cup chopped onion, 1/2 cup chopped green pepper and 1/2 clove chopped garlic in 2 lbs. melted butter until pepper is tender. Add 1 1/2 cups tomatoes, fresh or canned. Add shrimp, salt and a pinch of thyme. Simmer 20 minutes or until tender. Serve over rice.

COMMAND PERFORMANCES before royalty of Europe and appearances in the foremost theaters and night clubs abroad and in this country — that's the record of the amazing and most amusing Lucille and Eddie Roberts, currently in the top spot in the Starlite Room of the Chi Chi. On the same bill are the Vallis, billed as the "Fashions in Steps." Luray White, Hollywood's new and alluring songstress and who was featured in "The Ten Commandments," a Paramount motion picture, completes the schedule of highly entertaining performers.

City to Send 12 Representatives to League Event

City of Palm Springs will be well represented at the League of California Cities conference September 18 through 21 at San Francisco.

Members of city council planning to attend are Mayor Florian Boyd and Councilmen Jerry Sanborn, Jerry Nathanson, Earle Strebe, Frank Miller and Ted McKinney.

City officials who will be there are City Manager R. W. Peterson, City Attorney Jerry Bunker, City Treasurer Shelby Langford, Director of Public Works, Frank Hammerschlag, City Clerk Louise McCann and Police Chief August G. Kettmann.

Kettmann, while there, will appear on a combination four-man police chiefs and city manager's panel which will discuss problems common to both police chiefs and city managers.

Kettmann, following the league meeting, will go on to Philadelphia for the annual convention of the International Association of Chiefs of Police October 2 through 6. During his absence from the city, Capt. Orest Johnson will be acting police chief.

With the Trailer Parks

The new manager of Ramon Trailer Park, who returns here this year after an absence of a season or two, Hal Barnett and Mrs. Barnett and their son Peter were honored at a Saturday night dinner given for them in the patio at the trailer park. The welcoming dinner was arranged by Earl and Nancy Koedyker.

Among the guests enjoying the dinner and the community singing to the guitar music of Howard Dudley, were Messrs. and Mrs. W. H. Ballinger, Harry E. Read, Sam Dunlap, W. I. Lane, C. F. Pettyjohn, Van Harper, Gilbert Dewhurst, Dwight Swinton, H. A. Dudley, Herman Boweley, O. E. Hill, James E. Cross, John Martin, Bill Heese, George Scholl, Bill Contarini, Jim Dunn, George H. Seymour, Dick Barton, Ike Hand and daughter Linda.

Also, Cora Beatty, Ethel

Knapp, Elizabeth Dunham, Ethel Roehr, Hazel Critchlow, Ethel Coolidge, Bob Franck, Sam Morris, Frances Riegel, LaRue Johnson.

RANCHO TRAILER PARK

Preparing for the coming season, many guests are already beginning to return, arriving earlier this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Hall, co-owners of Rancho are expected back from the Wally Byram trailer caravan through Canada and the New England states today.

Hall is chairman of the Palm Springs Rally committee, the annual big trailer rally to be held this year, November 11 through 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Frasher, retired teachers, were also on the Byram tour and are expected back next month. The early birds already back, are busy practicing shuffleboard getting ready for the Winter's tournament.

Stuart and Jaloff Buy El Reposo

When Peter B. Sheptenko, realtor, Sam Stuart, owner of the El Paseo Market and Stanley Jaloff, owner of the two Beachcomber stores in Palm Springs finished discussing the deal it was only a few figurative steps to the final conclusion.

And that was: The El Reposo apartments, located at Vista Chino and Wagona road, became the possession of two new owners—Sam Stuart and Stanley Jaloff. Immediately the new owners announced that improvement of the property will take place as soon as possible, including a swimming pool.

Realtor Sheptenko represented both sides in the transaction.

Thief Takes Goods from Perlberg Home

Burglarizing of the William Perlberg home, 888 Avenida Palmas, was reported to police Sunday.

Taken by the burglars were two electric razors, a Leica camera, two shirts, and several miscellaneous items, according to Perlberg.

ASTONISHING PERFORMANCE!

And that's only half the Chevrolet story

Great Features back up Chevrolet Performance: Anti-Dive Braking—Ball-Race Steering—Outrigger Rear Springs—Body by Fisher—12-Volt Electrical System—Nine Engine-Drive Choices in all models—and, finally, the great scientific, technical and engineering resources of General Motors.

A lightning-quick power punch that makes your driving safer! That's one of the reasons for Chevrolet's winning stock car record—but it's not the only one. Not by a long shot!

Astonishing performance—the sizzling acceleration of Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8"—it takes that to win stock car races.

But it takes a lot more besides. Cornering and handling qualities really count on the NASCAR® Short Track circuit where Chevrolet's king—just as they count for safer and more pleasant highway driving. And even the high-priced cars don't slice through a tight turn as neatly—or handle as sweetly—as this beauty. The record proves it!

Come on in and sample all the things that give Chevrolet its winning ways. We're keeping a key ready for you!

Missing Lad, 7,
Missed Corner

Police Friday were called on for their first case of finding a missing child after school.
Mrs. Janet Hubbard, 545 Calle Palo Pterro, called after school to report that Pat, age 7, had not returned from school.
Officer T. M. Aiken investigated and found the youth two blocks from home, and that he had left the school bus at the wrong corner.

EDITOR'S CORNER

By Oliver B. Jaynes

TRUTH ABOUT DIXIE — Travelers passing through the southern states on their vacation trips probably remember this section of the country mostly for the hospitality of its people, country ham and red-eye gravy, square dancing and folk singing, extreme poverty in many sections, native arts and crafts, and its huge textile mills. Tourists are also impressed with the backwardness of the people in many localities. Those who have never visited the South still think of it as it is pictured in their history books of the war between the states and the reconstruction period. Many have no idea at all of what the present South is like and what its problems are.

This accounts for the feeling which I find is general through the southern states that this section of the country and its problems seem to be little understood by people in other sections of the country. People down here feel that the rest of the nation does not really understand the South, many of them believe that there is still a perceptible resentment of the South in some areas, mostly among people of the North and East. They think that westerners just don't know much about the present day South and take little interest in it or its problems.

"It is about as hard for the South to get to the people of other parts of the country as it is for the United States to get its message behind the Iron Curtain," said the Columbia (South Carolina) State, in a recent editorial. No section of the nation has been so misrepresented as the South, this newspaper believes, and it goes on to complain that you never see an article in a national magazine giving the southern view point or hear a national radio commentator espousing the cause of the South. "The northern press is just as bad, just as poorly informed and just as biased," according to this old southern newspaper.

This prominent South Carolina daily proposes that the southern states should join in organizing a "Voice of the South" and broadcast southern viewpoints just as the Voice of America tries to get the American story told behind the Iron Curtain. There should be an organized effort, this newspaper believes, to let people of other sections know the real South.

Southern Advertising, an advertising trade publication of Atlanta, Georgia, suggests that the South should create a sizable advertising fund to tell the rest of the nation what the South is, what it has been since the founding of the nation and what it is today. This southern magazine advocates spending $3 or $4 million a year for this purpose, which — it is interesting to note — is not to attract tourists to the region but to tell of its problems and help their fellow Americans understand better the way of life in these southern states.

Commenting on the same subject, the Hendersonville (North Carolina) Times-News says, "There is a lamentable dearth of enlightenment in distant sections of the country about prevalent conditions in the South" and adds that some light should be shed upon these areas and their people by the presentation of the truth about the South. The most perplexing problem with which the southern states is confronted today is, of course, the United States Supreme Court's ruling against segregation. It is probably the most difficult problem which the people of these states have faced since reconstruction days. They want to live up to the law of the land but also want their fellow citizens in other sections of the country to understand the grave problem which the segregation ruling has created in the South.

It would be well if our people of the West—as well as in the North and East — make an effort to understand and be a little more sympathetic with their fellow Americans of the southern states. Perhaps an effort will be made, as the southern newspapers suggest, to get more actual information about the South to other sections of the country. If properly presented, it would make some very interesting reading and listening.

Dennis, the Menace By Ketchum

"BUT SPOKE WE GET ATTACKED ON THE WAY TO CHURCH?"

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

After weeks of trial and oftentimes stress, today we're running on that new press

But remember—anything as complicated as that with all of its gears, shafts, nuts, screws, bolts, is bound to have a few bugs in it—and I don't mean crickets. But it won't be long now before they are all ironed out. (Wonder what a pressed bug looks like.)

THERE ARE TWO big days on my September calendar. One comes just a week from tomorrow and the other in ten days. The first is the end of Summer. That's on September 23 at 10:42 a.m., Pacific Daylight Time. And the other arrives at 2 a.m. Sunday, September 25. That's the end of Daylight time. And it will be PST from then on. Of course, the latter will show the most material benefits. We'll know right then or, at least, when we arise, that there has been a change. Won't have to grope for the light switch upon arising on a working day. Not for a while, anyway. The other shift won't be so noticeable. The temperature isn't going to make a quick change just because Autumn has arrived. But, coming to think about it, one of the warmest Summers (to express it mildly) in some time is going to last two days longer than usual. The seasons ordinarily change on the 21st not the 23rd. That takes care of the meteorological portion of this thesis.

LOOKS LIKE we are going to have to take that narrow bridge on Palm Canyon drive across Tahquitz creek for a few more months. City council has wisely decided to seek a delay in the widening project for South P.C.D. until next April. It was discovered that if the plans were permitted to percolate without interruption, the widening job would be done about next January. Just when things will be popping here. So council, remembering the hassle incident to the widening and improvement of Indian avenue which extended into the busy season, decided it would be the lesser of two evils to put the job off until at least April. There would be more turmoil if the widening project was under way when the desert was full of people than if the bridge remained as is. So, in about eight or nine months from now, we'll be through trying to squeeze past a pedestrian and/or a cyclist and/or a truck on that bridge.

NOTED, WHILE ENROUTE to work and coming up Palm Canyon drive that the sign directing people east on the Plaza to the post office is gone. Well, the post office is too, so it's all O.K. now. See where, in Riverside, a woman driver blamed the fact that she had missed a curve and smacked a telephone pole on the man driver of another car. Seems that when she made a left turn right in front of him, he rolled down his window and let her have it. She said she couldn't make out what he was saying but, judging from the expression on his face, she knew it wasn't nice. And it so upset her, she told police, that she lost control of her car. So watch your language when paying your respects to another driver.

FRIEND OF MINE tells me that the beer cans dumped along the roadside by careless and sloppy oafs can constitute a new menace. Said that as she was driving along the highway near the SP depot, the high wind was picking up the discarded beer cans on one side of the road and rolling them across to the other. Bad on tires and the nerves. But the discarded beer cans are, at least good for something although I'd just as soon not have their help. At night, when the headlights shine on them, they are so thick and continuous that their reflections serve as a road marker, outlining the curves.

AND THEN there's the little kid that got spanked for working a crossword puzzle. When asked why, he said there was a three-letter word with the clue: "What is drunk each afternoon around four?" "And," he sobbed, "I put in Dad when it should have been Tex."

The Voice of Broadway

By Dorothy Kilgallen

Martha Raye's search for happiness has prompted another switch of boy friends. She jilted Joe Miller (an actor in the Broadway version of "Picnic") for a dealer in one of the Las Vegas gambling casinos.

Television insiders who have seen the first film segment of the new Jackie Gleason show say the audience reaction is so disappointing the powers-that-be are considering using dubbed-in laughter to bolster the genuine chuckles. The plot line of the episode deals with a dying dog, which may explain why some viewers found it less than hilarious.

Jeanette Eddis and Winthrop Rockefeller have a problem that threatens their betrothal. He prefers to live almost all the time on his fabulous Arkansas "farm," she enjoys an occasional whirl in international society.

Happy Chandler, gubernatorial candidate in Kentucky, will be one of the angels for Gant Gaither's "The Man With the Golden Arm." . . . Frank Sinatra is weighing an unusual offer from one of the networks. They want the crooner to do a syndicated taped radio show discussing sports (he's quite an expert) and interviewing top-flight sporting figures.

Gertrude Nielsen is dividing her fun-time between Pep De Lucia and Lee Graham. . . . It was only a question of how soon. There's a new song out titled "The $64,000 Question." . . . A thief stole every mink Giselle MacKenzie owned while she was vacationing at the Capela hotel in Acapulco.

Several Berlin hostelry biggies are flying into New York to study U. S. hotel-running technique. They're making no secret of the fact that they're disturbed over the competition of a new $5,000,000 Hilton hotel there.

Tyrone Power has been house-guesting with Eva Gabor in Connecticut. Eva's mama, Jolie, is the chaperone. . . . Jimmy Davis, the crooner who once was governor of Louisiana, will run again for that office with the help of colorful ballyhoos Eddie Jaffe. It was Eddie who arranged for Davis to appear at the upcoming Democratic National Convention.

Rex Harrison had a constant social problem in Capri: explaining to autograph-seeking tourists that the beauty with him was not wife, Lili Palmer, but his favorite doll, Kay Kendall. . . . Cutie-pie singer Peggy King is being wooed by Joe Linhoff, the arranger. . . . New-lweds Pupi Campo and Betty Clooney are considering opening a restaurant in Florida.

The Ringling Bros. Barnum and Bailey circus is planning to televise several performances as video "spectaculars" next year.

The city fathers of Manzanillo, Mexico, are thrilled with the flicker called "Seven Cities of Gold." They feel its exciting color shots of the beautiful beaches and lovely hills around the city will spark tourist interest as "Three Coins in the Fountain" did for Rome. . . . Anybody notice that when they handed little Gloria a bike on the $64,000 question the other night it was a boy's bike?

Marlene Dietrich will play hostess at a party honoring Edith Piaf when the French star returns to the Versailles Sept. 14. . . . The big fever on Fire Island is Fiver, a five-letter-word paper and pencil game that comes from California and is causing dust to gather on the scramble sets. . . . Many a big business man whose monkey business with government payoffs and tax matters grew too conspicuous beat the rap by escaping to Cuba before indictments were handed down. That's the pet hideout for those who were on the verge of being nabbed by the law.

June Kirby, the dazzling blonde member of the Goldwyn Girls, isn't likely to give her heart to any of the local fellows while she's here. It belongs to Larry Sloane, a Las Vegas press agent. . . . The new restaurant called Les Pyrenees (on W. 48th) boasts a corner of historic interest to theatrical folk. Its wines are kept in the spot where John Barrymore used to store his trunks while he toured.

The Giants certainly will have to find a new stadium when their lease expires—unless a miraculous change takes place in the mood of the negotiations between the club and the Polo Grounds' landlord. The owners of the land want to tear down the ball park and put in a huge housing project—leaving the Giants to move to a suburb of New York, share the Yankee Stadium, or switch their franchise to San Francisco. . . . Dan Topping Jr. and debutante Paula Sabin are a twosome.

"SKULL CAP FOR A MOOSE"

I'll never forget the time Grandpa Tooten bought a guaranteed Moose Call from the Mail Order House. The first time he tried it a Lady Moose rushed out of the woods and fell in love with him. The Moose kept following Grandpa around with such a love-sick expression he couldn't bear to shoot her, so for awhile he picked up a couple of bucks selling Moose Milk and he used to use her for a hatrack when company came but she kept eating up the hats. Finally, though, he found a use for the Moose. He tied the lead-in to the TV to her tail and used her horns for an antennae. Worked fine too; except every time he used his electric razor the Moose went out of focus.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

This time of the year in Palm Springs we are sitting in a swing at the top of the arc... just ready to lift our feet from the ground and take off on a swooping flight into another fabulous season... The signs are unmistakable... On Palm Canyon drive the yellow school busses are running again... and the faithful Village bus... The parking meters are in action... and vacationers are trickling back... There's the rasping of saws and the pounding of hammers... and trucks rolling along loaded with new trees and plants... and all kinds of pre-opening activities... as we get into the swing of things...

The C. C. Hutchens family who have been at their idyllic wild lodge "The Cedars" on Strawberry Creek this Summer... are back in their home on Mesquite... They had a wonderful summer in the mountains... and daughter Nancy who is nine won two blue ribbons in the gymkhana up there... Their oldest daughter Sue spent the last week of vacation at Balboa Island with Wendy Taylor and her parents, the Sam Taylors... Hutch's brother Mac L. Hutchens, (chief, editorial writer for the St. Louis Globe Democrat) and his wife were here for a visit last week...

Sam Taylor incidentally, did all right in the Hills Dilly tournament against all the big brass of golfdom... coming in third... He and Beverly are due back from Balboa Island this week... with the Tennis Club due to open October 21...

Oliver and Frankie Jaynes, who arrived back in the Village this weekend... stopped on their way home from Florida... for a brief visit with their former neighbors Clint and Dorothy Fox... at their dude ranch, The Lazy Fox Ranch at Wickenburg, Arizona... The Jaynes' daughter Janet is still in the East in Washington, D. C...

Velma (Mrs. Edwin) Silverman, who returned here on Labor Day after a Summer in Lake Geneva, Wisconsin... was at the Chi Chi Sunday evening with their three youngsters Jack, Alan and Susie... celebrating Susie's tenth birthday... The children had a good Summer at the lake and took sailing lessons... Velma and Ed (he's still in Chicago) got away for a visit to Manhattan and saw a few shows...

George and Daphne Cameron... who have a January date with the stork... have an order in for a girl baby, I understand... Mr. and Mrs. Miles Grey of Santa Barbara (Daphne's mother and stepfather)... are just back from a Summer on the Continent and houseguesting with the Camerons...

Bertine Treat is in the Good Samaritan hospital... recovering from an emergency appendectomy which she underwent this past weekend... She's been in and out of Palm Springs this Summer... supervising an addition to her San Lorenzo home...

Lillian and Franklin MacCarthy were down for a couple of days... so Franklin could get a new dichondra lawn seeded... They have practically been commuting between Los Angeles and San Francisco this Summer... and Lillian tells me it has been mink coat weather up North... They also spent some time in Monterey, San Luis Obispo and Ventura... and have been in the throes of re-decorating their town house...

With our Desert Sun in the throes of going daily these are busy days... so I will have to miss the luncheon which Lee Anderson is giving in town at Romanoffs on Saturday... It's one of those "just for fun" affairs but honors Bettye Herbert... Among invited guests are...

Miss Albiser is Bride of C. W. Potts

At home this week in Palm Springs are Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Potts, who were married September 3 in the Little Church of the West in Las Vegas... The bride, the former Miss Marian Albiser, daughter of Mrs. Louis A. Albiser, of Vermont, flew here from New York... The couple motored to Las Vegas for the wedding... She has been secretary to James Kemper for the past two years and was with him when he served as Ambassador in Brazil...

For her wedding she wore a Christian Dior short-length gown of white silk jersey and a black, milan hat and matching slippers... After a short honeymoon stay at the New Frontier, the newlyweds came to Palm Springs and are at home at 579 Highland Drive. The bridegroom is employed in Marty's Sample Shop.

Browns Move to Palm Springs

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Brown and their four children, Robin, Chandler, Roxana and Ann, have moved to Palm Springs in time to get the children entered in school. Mr. Brown is associated with the law firm of Simon, Wing and Brown... The family has rented a house at 2055 East Anadito for a couple of months until their new home is completed in the Simon development, the Sands. They had been living in Beaumont... Mrs. Brown's sister, Dr. Velma Chandler of Brunswick, New Jersey left Friday after spending a few days with the Browns...

Randolphs Return after Vacation

Roy and Ann Randolph are back in their home on Riverside drive after spending a couple of months in Palos Verdes with his brother Leon Griffl... Griffl has recently opened a new night club, the Gay Nineties, on Signal Hill, which is complete with sawdust floor and callopie... Mrs. Randolph's son, McGill Hawley, has been here for a week's visit before taking off for Fountain Valley School in Colorado Springs. Another son, Michael is in Shattuck Military in Minnesota...

Atterburys Back in Village after Summer Trip Abroad

Like so many Villagers who have been abroad, Dick and Mary Atterbury find that the mountains that nestle this desert resort remind them of the beauties of Switzerland. Even as they reminisce of the wonders of their trip abroad, the Atterburys are inclined to say "We'll still take Palm Springs..." The Atterburys sailed early in June on the Queen Elizabeth and visited England, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Austria, France, Italy and Switzerland before they sailed for home in mid-August...

They adored Paris, where they attended many shows and night spots, and admired the perennial beauty of Venice... In Rome they were guests of honor at a party given for them by their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Chingio. Their host, who is head of INS in Rome, is the author of "The Pope Speaks..."

Many of the Embassy crowd and some Italian nobility attended the party. The hostess served an all American buffet, featuring fried chicken, potato salad, and baked beans. One Baron was fascinated with the pot of beans as he had never tasted any before... and asked for the recipe...

A group of Village sub-debs Saturday attended the matinee party which celebrated the eleventh birthday of Pamela D'Auvray, daughter of Mrs. Graham Dexter, of 1915 El Oro Way, Pamela, who is enrolled at Katherine Finchy school, returned recently from Idyllwild where she attended a girls' camp, Center of Creative Living, this Summer...

The merry party attended the matinee performance of "The Kentuckian" at the Village Theater and had a party complete with a glittering birthday cake, at the Chi Chi afterwards... Helping Pam celebrate were: Pamela Tackett, Julie Stiff, Caroline Colegate, Tina and Toni Fascinato, Diane Hechter, Aidele Ford, Ruthmary Samson, Lynna Lowry, Sue and Mary Hutchens, Sue Henwood and Patsy Patzner.

Miss Hubbard in New Home

Mildred Jackson, of the Harold Hicks office, reports the sale of a beautiful home at 250 Morongo to Addie Hubbard, manager of Palm Springs Bullocks. Miss Hubbard bought the house just before her Summer trip abroad and moved in on her return... Highlights of Miss Hubbard's vacation were her stay in Cannes, the Acropolis by moonlight, and Egypt, which she says it is fast emerging into the modern world. The traveler made her return voyage aboard the French line's Ile de France.

HONEYMOONING in San Francisco are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Peterson, she the former Jane Piantadosi, who were married Saturday morning in St. Charles Church in North Hollywood. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Vivian Peterson and the nephew of Mrs. Charles Farrell. The Farrells are pictured here with the bride and groom at the reception which followed the wedding.

Peterson-Piantadosi Vows Said in North Hollywood

Vows were exchanged Saturday morning in St. Charles Church in North Hollywood by Jane Piantadosi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Piantadosi Sr., and Thomas "Tommy" Peterson, son of Mrs. Vivian Peterson of Palm Springs and Colorado Springs. Monsignor Meade officiated at the nuptials.

The bride's gown was of traditional white satin trimmed with pearls and was designed for her by Lord and Taylor of New York City.

The bridegroom is the nephew of Mrs. Charles Farrell and the Farrells were among the wedding guests. His mother, Mrs. Peterson, who is manager of the Garden of the Gods Club, came from Colorado for her son's marriage.

Following the wedding ceremony about one hundred and fifty guests attended the reception which was held at the Piantadosi home at 5231 Biloixi Avenue in North Hollywood.

After a San Francisco honeymoon, the young couple will be at home in Westwood.

Cahuilla P-TA Board Plans for New Year

Formulating plans for their new year, Cahuilla P-TA board members met Monday noon at the Palm Springs Biltmore, with Mrs. Robert Backstrom, president, conducting the meeting.

October 4 has been selected for the date of their traditional Get Acquainted Party, which will feature a chuckwagon potluck under a full moon.

Mrs. Ed Green, membership chairman, set the date for the annual membership drive as October 3-12.

Another board meeting on September 27 will see officers and chairmen completing their plans. Mrs. William Foster, publicity chairman, reported this week.

Drops Camera to Catch Salmon

Photographer Bill Anderson, who has been vacationing in Oregon for the past six years, was beginning to think everyone could catch salmon but him... until he caught a 25-pound salmon last week, during a four-day fishing trip along the Columbia River.

The Andersons motored north to Astoria to pick up their children Linda and Christine, who have been Summering with their maternal grandmother Mrs. Henry Pietarila. They spent 10 days away, returning in time to enter the two girls in school.

Mrs. Anderson spent the Summer recovering from surgery.

'Hopalong' Relaxing at Biltmore

Mr. and Mrs. William "Hopalong Cassidy" Boyd have returned to the Palm Springs Biltmore to relax and rest after his tour in the east—visiting the children's hospitals.

Others who are enjoying the hotel's hospitality are Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Zenoff of Las Vegas. Zenoff is owner and publisher of the Boulder City News, Boulder, Nevada and The Home News, Henderson, Nevada, and owner and operator of radio station KBMJ in Las Vegas. Mrs. Zenoff (Dolores) is his business manager.

P. S. Hardy and family of Lincoln, Nebraska, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Olson of Los Angeles and Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Colman of Reno are among other guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jacobs and Max Cook of Indio, were enjoying the food and fun in the Garden Room the other evening.

Jewell Cowan is Stephens' Student

Miss Jewell Sharon Cowan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Cowan of 444 Via Lola, this week registered at Stephens College in Columbia, Missouri, with classes due to start tomorrow.

Stephens is embarking on an important experiment in the utilization of educational television with the establishment of a new course, "Ideas and Living Today." The course, to be taught by Dr. Reuel Denney by closed circuit television, will be received simultaneously in fifty classrooms, to be followed by discussion periods among groups not to exceed twenty students each. Planned to implement orientation for new students and to develop a common intellectual interest on campus, the course is already attracting widespread interest from educators.

Ruth Bradley, who is vacationing in Cuba, writes that she is having a wonderful trip. En route she visited in Chicago and Detroit.

Canbys Return from Wyoming

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Canby and their three children, Judy, Tommy and Dicky, returned this past week after a Summer at their cabin at Dubois, Wyoming just over the Rockies from Jackson Hole.

Hotspot of the Summer for Ed was fighting fire in the Shoshone National forest, when flames broke out only about a mile and a half from their cabin. The fire was controlled and only about three acres were burned over.

PROOF OF his fisherman's luck was brought back from vacation by Bill Anderson, shown here with the 25-pound salmon he caught in the Columbia River this Summer.

Shriners to Trek to Las Vegas on Weekend Safari

Several thousand Shriners and candidates for membership in Al Malaikah Temple will participate in a stag Safari and Ceremonial to Las Vegas on September 16, 17, 18, general chairman Les White announced today. Each of the 41 Al Malaikah Shrine Clubs in eight Southern California counties will be represented by officials and members, White said.

The Safari will have as its highlight a Hot Foot Ceremonial in which candidates for membership will be inducted into the Shrine. Dixon W. Kelley will direct this ceremonial, along with Potentate Glenn L. Pearce, the Al Malaikah uniformed patrol, bank, chanters, official divan and other units.

Most of the Shriners plan to leave by train on Friday morning, September 16 and return the following Sunday. More than 1500 uniformed Shriners will take part in the parade in Las Vegas Saturday, September 17.

ARCHITECTS' DRAWING of the new Desert Braemar, $3 million cooperative apartment house development planned just east of Palm Springs near Thunderbird and Tamarisk Country clubs.

Desert Braemar, $3 Million Project, Planned Near City

Two lush 18-hole golf courses, pictorial mountain scenes in the near distance and the desert vista stretching away into the blue, is the planned setting for the new Desert Braemar, $3,000,000 cooperative apartment house development.

To be situated just east of Palm Springs on Highway 111, cooperative apartment owners will be within easy walking distance of both Tamarisk Country Club and Thunderbird Country Club.

WELL KNOWN VILLAGERS and members of both golf clubs are behind the project. Among those who have envisioned this new type of luxury co-ownership of these garden apartments are Harrison Fisher, E. V. Anderson, Henry Hohman, E. C. Houghton, George R. Bralley, Paul Bronan and Dick Hanousek.

Bronan and Hanousek two of the prime movers in the development have attained rare success in both Hollywood, Rodlands and Riverside with this same cooperative plan of apartment ownership.

IT WAS ANNOUNCED that the completed development will encompass approximately 25 acres of what is today believed by realtors, to be the most desirable land in the Palm Springs resort area. The site's nearness to both golf clubs, has made this property especially attractive and it was collectively placed into the development by the owners, who also will be owners of apartments when the project is completed.

According to Bronan and Hanousek, half of the project or 100 units will be completed. It is hoped, this season at a cost of $1,500,000. Applications for participation and ownership of apartments have already been received, it was announced.

THE SALES PRICE of these units which boasts of one to three bedroom apartments, with the most popular unit the one containing two bedrooms will range from $11,250 to $21,500. All apartments are commodious and are designed for the utmost in living.

Each purchaser of an apartment automatically becomes a member of the operating corporation. This type of management and co-ownership allows for careful screening of prospective apartment owners and insures that the attitude will be that of a permanent member of the community, rather than the transient interest of a renter, it was pointed out.

FOLLOWING CHOICE of the site and builder, the group commissioned Kenneth Mitchell, noted land planner to lay out the property. The site will be completely improved with curbs, gutters, service roads, landscaping and sprinkling systems.

Architect John Lindsay designed the Desert Braemar. Features of construction will be pastel roofs of the Bermuda type. There will be two swimming pools, cabanas, tennis courts and putting greens. Laundry facilities will also be available.

This new development under the initial group ownership is already assured of a welcome reception.

"Before any general public announcement was made, applications for apartment ownership were received," the planners announced.

Agents for the sales here in Palm Springs will be shortly announced, Roy W. Colegate, well known Palm Springs attorney along with the law firm of Fulep and Rolston, Beverly Hills is handling the legal affairs.

Plan Vets' Center in Mountain Area

Establishment of a rehabilitation center for disabled war veterans is being planned for an area high in the San Jacinto mountains, it was announced last week.

Robert E. Dillon, Supervisor for 16 Years, Dead

Last rites were said at Beaumont Tuesday for Robert E. Dillon, supervisor for 16 years from this, the fourth, county district. Mr. Dillon died at the age of 77 last Friday at his home, 1151 East Eighth street in Beaumont.

He was first elected to the board to represent the desert and San Geronimo Pass district in 1930 and was re-elected in 1934, 1938, 1942 and 1946. In 1947 he resigned due to failing health.

During his term of office he was instrumental in creation of the Joshua Tree National monument, construction of the Palms to Pines highway and various other projects in the county.

Change in Bond Market Awaited by Tram Board

Earl Coffman, chairman of the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Authority, speaking before the County Board of Trade at Riverside Friday, said that construction of the huge lift awaits only the improvement of the revenue bond market.

He said that financial advisors of the Authority had recommended that the present is not a good time to market the bonds as the "revenue bond market is saturated."

He said the situation was improving rapidly, however. Coffman also declared that renewed efforts of conservation organizations to obtain repeal of the act which created the Authority were not a serious threat to construction of the Tramway.

He said that such efforts had been defeated several times before and that opponents of the project had no new arguments to offer.

Palm House Scores 1-0 Upset Win Over Marines

Palm House entry in the Desert Softball League which finished fourth in the regular schedule was one up today in the Cup Series play-off.

They upset the favored Twentynine Palms Marines, winners of the league pennant in the first of a series of two out of three 1 to 0 Tuesday night at the Polo Grounds.

Marines Blank Hawks Twice to Get Into Finals

Twentynine Palms trimmed the Desert Nite Hawks in two straight shut-outs—1 to 0 and 3 to 0—to enter the finals of the Softball Cup series against the Palm House team which eliminated Desert Hot Springs two out of three.

Johnny Green hurled another one-hitter running his string of shut-outs to 21 innings and allowing only two hits in that time.

IN THE SECOND GAME Friday night he allowed but one single in the second inning. He allowed but one hit in the first game Wednesday night and blanked the Nite Hawks for 14 straight innings.

The Marines, who have only collected six hits themselves in three games, turned four hits into three runs Friday night.

IN THE FIRST game Wednesday night, Johnny Green came within one inning of setting a new Desert Softball League record—two consecutive no-hit games.

He went six innings without allowing a safe hit but in the seventh, O. B. Crawford of the Nite Hawks beat out a bunt for a safety. He was left stranded.

Green pitched seven innings of no-hit ball against the Desert Hot Springs Fireballs last week and coupled with the six innings against the Hawks, racked up 13 innings without allowing a safety.

THE MARINES scored their only run in the 1-0 victory on two doubles in the second inning.

Frank Deavers of the Hawks allowed only three hits and with both teams playing clean ball defensively, only one error being registered, the game was over in 55 minutes.

Salton Sea May Become Popular Sports Fishery

Salton Sea, the vast body of water in the middle of the desert, 50 miles east of Palm Springs, may develop into a first rate sports fishery.

So says Dr. Boyd Walker, University of California at Los Angeles ichthyologist, who has been directing an investigation of the inland sea's ability to support large fish populations. The investigation is being carried out under a contract with the State Fish and Game Commission, with funds from the State Conservation Board.

TWO TYPES OF FISH—pan-sized gulf croakers and large, gamey corvinas—seem to be adapting to the tepid waters of the vast desert body of water. The croakers were introduced in 1950-51 and have multiplied rapidly. The corvinas were only planted a couple of years ago but are increasing at a rate that promises good fishing in two or three years.

Other interesting facts turned up in the study are:

1. The inland sea is rising about a foot a year. It is now only 234 feet below sea level as compared to 235 a year ago. (Runoff irrigation water empties into the inland sea).

2. It is becoming less salty but apparently not enough to be biologically significant.

3. It produces more diatoms (microscopic plants) per unit volume than the ocean. A maximum of 52,000,000 of these tiny plant cells per liter has been recorded from the Salton Sea, as compared to an ocean maximum of about 1,000,000.

THESE TINY PLANTS float free in the water and, upon death, settle to the bottom, contributing to the rich organic mud that supports a great population of annelid worms. These worms are in turn the primary food source of Salton Sea fish.

Assisting Dr. Walker on a fulltime basis are Dr. Lars Carpelan, Dr. Richard Whitney, and Richard Linsley, all of whom are stationed at the Salton Sea.

Oppose Winter Season on Deer

San Jacinto Mountain Wilderness and Trail association, meeting last week at Idyllwild, went on record as opposing a Winter season for deer hunting in the county mountains.

A resolution supporting the board of supervisors and against a Winter season was adopted and sent to the board. Supervisors recently asked Governor Goodwin Knight and the State Fish and Game commission to refuse to establish a Winter deer hunting season.

M'Kinneys Open After Record in Construction Job

Theft of a carburetor and manifold from the trunk of his car was reported to police Saturday by Cecil Bullard, 444 North Indian avenue.

Suds Champions of Coast League

The Pacific Coast League championship pennant will fly over the Polo Grounds next Spring—figuratively if not actually.

The Seattle Rainiers, who train here each Spring, won the PCL title in a last week drive which saw them wind up three games to the good over San Diego, last year's champs, who finished second.

The Suds were not sure of it in a hot race until Saturday night when they downed Los Angeles to nail down the title. They wound up the season winning 95 and losing 77.

Mayor Florian G. Boyd and Chamber of Commerce officials Tuesday night dispatched congratulatory messages to Emil Sick, Rainier owner, and other officials of the club.

Nancy Kiner Victim of 2 Faulty Calls

Victim of what sportswriters said were "two obviously bad line calls," Nancy Chaffee Kiner was eliminated last week from the United States Women's Tennis Championship tournament in the quarter-final round by Doris Hart, 6-4, 6-4.

It was Mrs. Kiner's second tournament since her return to active competition after a three year lay-off at her Thunderbird Country club home.

The first bad call came in the first set with Mrs. Kiner leading 4-3 and the second in the second set with the local woman leading 3-2. Both sent the scores to deuce and robbed Mrs. Kiner of game points.

Services Sunday Under Direction of Rev. Yaylian

The Rev. Deran Yaylian, assistant minister of Palm Springs Community church will be in charge of the 11 a.m. services Sunday in the absence of Dr. James H. Blackstone, Jr., pastor, who is ill.

A nursery for young children will be maintained during the hour of the service.

Sunday school will convene at 9:30 a.m. with a bus service to bring the children to the school. Starting at 9:05 at Orchard Traller Park, the bus will pick up children for the Sunday school at Sunrise and Mesquite at 9:10, at El Placer and Calle San Antonio at 9:15, at Sunrise and Sunny Dunes at 9:20 and at Sunny Dunes and Camino Real at 9:25. The bus will arrive at the church at 9:30 a.m.

Special services are planned Sunday evening at 6 o'clock for Senior and Junior Christian Endeavor societies.

At the 7:30 evening service, following a song session, a film "In Face of Jeopardy," will be shown.

Two Masses St. Louis Church

Reverend Joseph Leissler, pastor of the Parish of St. Louis, Catholic Church in Cathedral City announced this week that services, until further notice, will include two Masses on Sunday. The first at 8 a.m., the second at 10.

The pastor said that attendance at his church during the summer never numbered less than 100 persons as compared to a low of less than 15 people during the first summer the church was open.

Recently the parking lot adjoining the church was decorated with fan palms and other improvements were made, Father Leissler said.

Renew Complete Services Sunday at Cathedral City

Full seasonal services were resumed at Cathedral City Community church last Sunday with Dr. Graham Hunter, pastor, bringing the sermon. Hour for the morning service is 9:30. Dr. Hunter will preach next Sunday's sermon at that hour.

Sunday school classes also convene at 9:30 a.m. Young people who attended the Summer conferences at Big Bear—Paul Jones, Paul Elmore, Mavis and Shirley Larkin—will tell of what the conference means to them at this time.

The Four C's, a club of younger adults, recently painted the church and made other improvements. Mrs. Berton Lamb is president of the club.

Dr. Hunter Tells of Travels Through Egypt, Near East

(Following is another article by Dr. Graham Hunter on his travels abroad during the summer. This one describes the Near East—EDITORS NOTE).

In Cairo they show you the very clump of bullrushes in the Nile where Moses as a baby was hidden from the murderous king. He headed a bricklayers' strike which brought the Hebrew nation into existence. Now after 3300 years another revolution is exciting all Egypt and one wonders if it has as strong a foundation as that which Moses built. The sick world seems to need a couple more tablets like those which he brought down from Mount Sinai in his time.

Premier Abd-el-Nasser, we were told by a competent newspaper man, "hates to be dominated," and that is a child in Egypt's politics. As a child the Premier revolted against a stepmother's domination and to maintain his independence joined, of all things, the army. He is determined not to be a satellite of the West. Yet unlike Nehru, he is not a "neutralist." Like Tito he wants to work with the West, but on his own terms. He is strongly anti-communist and the week before we reached Cairo, rounded up 170 communists who had infiltrated into colleges and schools. He wants to sell cotton to the West but most of it goes behind the iron curtain, like Israel's oranges.

Fuad Lhaly, government controller of social affairs in the Gizeh "zone," gave us several hours and told about land reform, significantly saying that no country in Europe prospered until it divided the land. Seven percent of the people own 70 percent of the land, and one percent of the people 36 percent of it. The new government has set out to break the power of the wealthy landowners and to raise the standard of living of the villagers, and city laborers who are desperately poor. Children under 3 are allowed to work six hours a day, those 9 to 12 only eight hours. Only one-thirtieth of Egypt's land has been arable. The government plans new dams and reservoirs and new model villages with plots around them of five acres per family. Against its plans is over-population, with 300,000 new mouths to feed each year. One of the Premier's plans is to make El Azhar, the Moslem university, the nation's great institution.

An old friend, Dr. Edward Calverly, a professor at the younger and rival "American University in Cairo," usually called A.U.C., told us about his institution which is only 35 years old. Its colleges of arts and sciences, one of its five students' school of social research has this year a Ford subsidy.

The colleges and universities which Americans have founded in the Near East are of great importance. Among them "A.U.C." and "A.U.B." the latter the only university at Beirut, and Robert College, with its neighboring College for Women, at Istanbul in Turkey are outstanding. They have helped give a right direction to the swift changes which are sweeping the near and middle east.

A.U.C. has a splendid assembly hall, the unexpected gift of a visiting tourist, who toured out to be a Christian business man of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. It is said to be the best assembly hall in Cairo and is used constantly, not only for instruction but also for music and some public events. The large Coptic church in Egypt traces its beginnings to Saint Mark. The Coptic language is that of the ancient hieroglyphs. The oldest generations of Copts knew persecution and foreign control and therefore lost some of their aggressiveness, but the new generation, trained partly in A.U.C. is active in church affairs, including prayers and devotions and in social work.

St. Paul's Church to Resume Full Service Sunday

St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal church, 125 West Alameda has resumed its full complement of services.

The Family hour at 9:30 a.m. this coming Sunday will consist of the explained service of the Holy Communion for the benefit of parents and Church school pupils. Adults who desire to make their Communion at this service will be given an opportunity to do so. Classes for adults and children will follow the service in the church.

The service at 11 a.m. will be that of Morning Prayer, with the lessons for the day stressing the foolishness of strict materialism, said the rector, the Rev. William A. Blondon, Jr. Holy Communion as usual will be celebrated at 8 a.m.

Parable on Sower Lutheran Topic

Jesus' parable of the sower is the text for Sunday at Our Saviour's Lutheran church, meeting in the Auxiliary room of World Wars Memorial Hall, 400 North Belardo road. The Rev. LeRoy Hass will preach the sermon. Time of the service is 9:15 a.m.

Materiality Topic of Sunday Lesson in Pulpit Sunday

That man must worship the one God only and not put his trust in material things is the keynote of the Lesson-Sermon on "Matter" to be read in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

"Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth" is a Bible selection in the Lesson-Sermon from Luke's Gospel (12:15).

Passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy read: "Sensual treasures are laid up where moth and rust doth corrupt. Mortality is their doom." "To ascertain our progress, we must learn where our affections are placed and whom we acknowledge and obey as God. . . . The objects we pursue and the spirit we manifest reveal our standpoint, and show what we are winning." (pp. 241, 239).
